

HASC 27th November 2019 12:15 – 16:00

HLH across speciality collaboration meeting.

Meeting Registration: 12:00 for 12:15 start.

AGENDA

12:00 Registration and light refreshments.

12:15-12.30

Welcome and Introduction: Jessica Manson/Rachel Tattersall

12.30-12.50

Standing agenda items

1. Conflicts of interest statements
2. Educational commitments
3. MDT updates
4. Relevant meetings

12.50-13:00

Investigation guideline (Strachan Mackenzie) for discussion and signoff

13:00-13:30

Anakinra

- a. Protocol – Jessica Manson
- b. NHS-E application – Rachel Tattersall
- c. NICE approval/licensed use – Rachel Tattersall
- d. Current use - all

13:30-14:15 Clinical cases

14:15-14.30 break & light refreshments

14:30-14:50 Link with Histio UK

- e. Website
- f. Support for regular meetings (face-to-face and TC)

14:50-15:10 HEF audit – Ethan Sen

15:10-15:30 Registry

15:30-15:45 On-call rota

15:45 – 16:00 AOB

HLH across speciality collaboration meeting.

Date: 27th November 2019 Location: Kings Cross-London, Time:12:15-16:00 Registration from 12:00

Please note: This Location does not allow delegates to bring their own food and drinks into the building.

Light refreshments will be served at: 12:15

Location

NCVO

Our building is conveniently located just eight minutes' walk from the excellent transport links of King's Cross, St Pancras and Eurostar stations.

National Council for Voluntary Organisations

Society Building

8 All Saints Street

London N1 9RL

DOWNLOAD A PRINT-FRIENDLY MAP \(PDF, 40KB\)

View a larger map on Google Maps

By train

The nearest mainline stations are St Pancras and King's Cross.

- London journey planner – TFL
- National Rail journey planner
- Search for train station facilities, including parking

By tube

King's Cross St Pancras is the nearest station, and has access to the Victoria, Northern, Piccadilly, Circle, Metropolitan, and Hammersmith and City lines. Euston, Caledonian Road, and Angel underground stations are all short bus journeys away.

- TFL website

By bus

The 17, 91 and 259 bus routes buses pass by NCVO. The 390 bus route passes down York Way, a short walk from NCVO.

- TFL website

By car

We have a small number of parking bays for guests who are Blue Badge holders (these must be booked in advance). There are parking meters in the surrounding streets but these are time limited and expensive – we would recommend using the excellent public transport facilities instead.

Judd Street Car Park is approximately 15 minutes' walk from NCVO.

- Local car parks – NCP website
- Parking in Islington – Islington Council website
- Travel news – the BBC website

By bicycle

Bike racks are available in the NCVO courtyard. Please be aware that bicycles are left at the owner's own risk.

There are Santander Cycles docking stations nearby.

- Transport for London's Cycle Journey Planner website
- Santander Cycle Hire website

On foot

If you are central London-based, you may like to walk to NCVO.

- Distance, times and routes – walkit.com
- NCVO on Google Maps

By plane

For international guests, there are direct links from